

General rules for motion:

If $h(t)$ is a function giving height (position) as a function of time, then:

Change in position = $\Delta h(t)$ = displacement

Derivative of position = $\frac{dh}{dt}$ = velocity

Derivative of velocity = $\frac{dv}{dt}$ = acceleration